Topic #1: Refugee, Immigrant, Asylee, Undocumented – What are the definitions?

Refugees are individuals who are unable to return to their country of origin because of persecution or a well-founded fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group or political opinion.

The term “refugee” is intended to include all eligible populations described in this overview.
Asylees

- Individuals who are in the U.S. and fear that they will be persecuted if they return to their home country. To become classified as an asylee, the person must go through an immigration hearing or court process.
Afghan and Iraqi Special Immigrants

- Displaced persons from Afghanistan and Iraq admitted to the U.S. with Special Immigrant Visas (SIVs).
- These Afghans and Iraqis were employed by or assisted the U.S. government with translation and other services.
Cuban and Haitian Entrants

- Nationals of Cuba and Haiti who are in the United States (U.S.) and are granted a special status by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.
Human Trafficking Victims*

- Individuals subjected to force, fraud or coercion for the purpose of sexual exploitation or forced labor and have a certification or eligibility letter from the federal Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR).

*California also has the Trafficking and Crime Victims Assistance Program (TCVAP)
Amerasians

- Persons born in Vietnam after January 1, 1962, and before January 1, 1976, fathered by a U.S. citizen. The Amerasian’s mother, her spouse, her other children or someone who has acted as the Amerasian’s mother, father or next of kin (and the spouse and children of that person) are also included in this category.
California has received over 700,000 refugees* since 1975. The largest refugee groups are currently coming from Iran, Southeast Asia, the former Soviet Union, Iraq and Africa.

- Prior to 1990, refugees were primarily from Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos in connection with the Vietnam Conflict.
- Over the last several years, the number of Asylees and trafficking victims eligible for services has increased.
- During Federal Fiscal Years 2011-12 and 2012-13, California served:
  - over 5,600 Asylees,
  - 210 federally-certified trafficking victims, and
  - 1,057 SIVs

*The term “refugees” in this paragraph is limited to refugees and does not include other groups, such as Asylees, SIVs, and certified trafficking victims.
Topic #2: Established agreements

As a County we established MOUs, working agreements, and miscellaneous orders through court.

Have you seen a difference now that these are in place?
